

LITE KEG

Lightweight: Utilizes polypropylene chimes to reduce overall keg weight.

Cost-effective: Provides a reliable, economic alternative to full stainless steel kegs.

Ergonomic: Improved ergonomic grip for ease of handling with an ingeniously-designed stacking system.

Secure: Neck and body constructed from 1.4301 stainless steel, ensuring strength and corrosion resistance.

A NEW GENERATION OF LIGHTWEIGHT KEGS WITH POLYPROPYLENE CHIMES

EASY TO HANDLE, READY TO ROLL

THIELMANN's re-designed Lite Keg is a lightweight and cost-effective option for brewers and beverage makers. It's designed for efficiency and ease of handling.

Crafted from robust 1.4301 stainless steel, the keg's body and neck ensure exceptional performance and corrosion resistance, safeguarding the integrity of its contents. By cleverly combining a stainless steel body with polypropylene chimes, the Lite Keg achieves a substantial reduction in weight.

But that's not all. The Lite Keg's comfortable, ergonomic grip makes handling effortless, while its fully stackable design offers a remarkable space-saving solution, maximizing your storage capacity.

Its surfaces are meticulously pickled and passivated, meeting stringent food-grade standards to ensure it's ready to deliver your beverages in pristine condition. Customization options, including colored chimes and a polished finish, are available on request.

Choose the Lite Keg for unparalleled performance, safety, and lightweight handling. Engineered by expertise you can trust.
